Questions from the Field

Area	Question	Answer
VA Form 21P-4706b, Federal Fiduciary's Account	Should the hub approve accountings submitted on a version of VA Form 21P-4706b dated prior to July 2016?	No, when reviewing accountings requested after September 1, 2016, hub personnel should request completion of the July 2016 version prior to approving or denying the accounting.
	What quality error will P&F Service cite related to the VA Form 21P-4706b?	P&F Service will call appropriate National quality error on any accounting approved without the appropriate form in accordance with the above guidance.
	What if the accounting call letter is not of record in VVA?	The accounting call letter is automatically generated and should be timely scanned into the eFolder.
	Are fiduciaries required to fill out page two? If not, does that page need to be included in order for the form to be considered complete?	Yes, fiduciaries are required to complete page 2 of VA Form 21P-4706b. VA requests updates on the fiduciary's background information and certification that the fiduciary did not default debts, is not subject to credit collection, and/or has not filed bankruptcy on page 2 of the form.

	If a fiduciary has a fiduciary fee overpayment can the accounting be approved and the request to refund the amount be in the approval letter?	No, reject the accounting. The fiduciary hub must monitor the case to ensure the reimbursement of the fee overpayment beneficiary account prior to approval. Additionally, personnel are reminded that appropriate referrals should be made when misuse is identified related to fee overpayments.
VA Form 21P-4718a, Certificate of Balance on Deposit and Authorization. to Disclose Financial Record	Regarding the 21P-4718a, is this form required, if all of the bank statements have been received for the entire accounting period? May the form be provided instead of bank statements? Also, if a fiduciary has a CD for the beneficiary can the 4718a be used to verify the account balance?	No, the 21P-4718a is not required in all cases. When evaluating federal fiduciary accountings, all bank statements for the period requested must be made available to VA for review. Fiduciaries may submit VA Form 21-4718a to verify funds in situations where verification through bank statements, are not available.
	Can we close the field examination without a 21P-4718a?	No, when requested, the field examination must be left in the active status until a 21P-4718a has been received and verified.
	Do we expect changes in ADP for IAs and FB exams in which the 21P-4718a is pending? Will that translate into a change in national targets?	Questions concerning performance targets should be directed to your designated District Office.

VA Form 21-592, Request for Appointment of a Fiduciary, Custodian or Guardian	Is VA Form 21-592 going away?	No. FPM requires that VA Form 21-592 be record with the exception of final ratings of an inability to handle VA benefits processed by the fiduciary hub. For cases sent to the hub for fiduciary appointment, (i.e. final ratings by the VSC/PMC, IDES, Restricted Access Claims Center, etc.) a VA Form 21-592 must be of record.
